Dear Ruth:

I want to tell you how very much I enjoyed my visit to Georgia. It was a grand meeting, and we thoroughly enjoyed the interesting program and all the fine entertainment which you arranged for us.

I want to thank you especially for including me in that wonderful Jekyl Island invitation. It was really delightful, and I enjoyed every minute of it. I hope you weren't too tired when you got back to the Island on Wednesday and that you had a nice vacation with your family.

Corinne has sent me the Chapter files, with the thought that it might be helpful to me to look through them before sending them on for the archives. As soon as I have had a chance to do so, I will send them on to you. We all appreciate very much your willingness to keep them.

Again, Ruth, thank you very much for a very special time.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Salmon
